- 1 Lift out the concealing panel.
- 2 Lower both the rear-seat backrests.
- 3 Remove the cover washers from the roof trim. Use a small screwdriver.
- 4 Lift in the cargo guard with the plastic knobs facing towards the luggage compartment and place the lower fasteners around the lock plate for the rear-seat backrest. Screw on the lower fasteners.
- 5 Pull out one of the lower cargo guard fasteners and position it in the roof console. Do the same with the other one.
- 6 Adjust the height of the cargo guard to the roof and screw on the upper fasteners.

WARNING

Make sure the upper cargo guard fasteners are securely hooked to the roof consoles.

- 7 Raise the backrests and make sure they lock securely.
- 8 Refit the concealing panel.
